

AOCs thanks our volunteer editors and reviewers whose work contributed to the Journal of Surfactants and Detergent's publication during its 25th volume anniversary year. Since 1998, contributions from our peer review community have made it possible for JSD to provide valuable basic and applied scientific research about the interfacial behavior of petrochemical and oleochemical surfactants and detergent ingredients to the scientific community worldwide.

We look forward to working with you in 2023!
