

Sustainable Food Proteins

Editor-in-Chief | Harjinder Singh

Sustainable Food Proteins (SFP)* and AOCS are abundantly grateful for our volunteer editors and reviewers whose expert peer review has provided our new open access journal with a successful first publication year in 2023! Your contributions make it possible for SFP to provide the international scientific community with research that supports the development, utilization, and consumption of sustainably derived protein foods.

We look forward to working with you in 2024!
